

THE LOST SHEEP, COIN, SON (B)

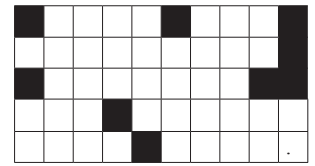

Luke 15:11-32

Jesus Teaches 9 LESSON

Apostolic Lutheran Church National Sunday School: 2010

(Murmurings

Puzzler

I T T S
N H H S T H E T
W E I I I A R T H
A S D N N V E A M
R T C E E E M E N H

Replace the fallen letters into the puzzle.

What was the message of the two parables from last week?

For answering...

STUDENT PAGE

- Who is the audience of this story? _____
- Who do you think the younger son represents in this story? _____
- What did the younger son do in this story? _____
- If we are all sinners, do you think that the younger son leaving his own father and family behind is a fair comparison to us? Why or why not? _____
- When the young man decided to go back to his father, what did he plan to do once he got home? _____
- Did the son get a chance to put his plan into action? _____
- In the story, do the father's feelings toward his son ever change? _____
- How does the older son react to his brother's return? _____
- Who do you think the older son represents in this story? _____
- Does either son think that the prodigal son should be allowed to return to his former status? _____
- Who does the father represent? _____
- What does Jesus teach us about God in these stories? _____
- Looking back at all three parables in Luke 15, at anytime does the sheep not belong to the master, the coin not belong to the women, or the son stop becoming his father's son? _____
- What is our value? _____

For exploring the Bible...

What do these verses have in common?

Proverbs 3:31

Proverbs 14:30

Proverbs 23:17

Proverbs 27:4

Zechariah 8:2

Mt. 27:18

2 Corinthians 11:2

Joel 2:18

Nahum 1:2

Joshua 24:19-20

For memory...

And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 2:6-7 KJV